

English Foundations

This course improves on functional literacy skills, practical work-related experience and the opportunity to build personal skills that are important for life and work.

Students are only eligible to study English Foundations if they have not yet met the minimum standard of literacy through the Online Literacy and Numeracy Assessment (OLNA)

Course Aims

The English Foundation course aims to help students develop:

- opportunities to practise their skills with functional literacy, especially spelling, punctuation and grammar
- skills in reading (understanding, comprehending, interpreting, analysing) texts for work, learning, community and everyday personal contexts
- skills in producing (constructing, creating, writing) texts for work, learning, community and everyday personal contexts
- skills in speaking and listening for work, learning, community and everyday personal contexts.
